

Morning prayer of dedication and devotion

HOLY SPIRIT, I invite you today to guide me, to teach me, and to show me the way of my Father God. My greatest desire is to know you, Holy Spirit, and that Jesus would be revealed unto my heart and unto my life. The greatest desire I have is that as He is revealed to me, that others would know him and know His salvation. I love you, Holy Spirit. I appreciate you, and I thank you for the work you are doing in my life. So therefore today, I yield myself to you. I yield my plans, my thoughts, and all that is before me today. And I trust you to help me, to guide me, to teach me, and to show me His perfect will. Thank you, Holy Spirit. You're special to my heart. I love you very much.

Father, this is the day that the Lord has made. I rejoice and I'm glad in it. I rejoice in you always, and again I say I rejoice. Today I decide to delight myself in you Lord. I am happy because you God are my Lord. Father you say that you rejoice over me with joy. Hallelujah. I am redeemed. I come with singing and everlasting joy is upon my head. I obtain joy and gladness and sorrow and sighing flee away. The spirit of rejoicing, joy, and laughter is my heritage and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. Father, my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips today. I am overfilled and stimulated with the Holy Spirit. I speak out in psalms and hymns and I make melody Father, with all my heart to you Lord. My happy heart is a good medicine and my cheerful mind works healing today. The light of my eyes rejoices the heart of others. I have a good report today and my countenance radiates the joy of the Lord. Father, I declare today is a successful day. Father, I yield myself unto You. I submit all my ways unto You. I yield myself spirit, soul, and body to be pleasing sacrifice in your sight. I'm a blessing today, and Father, I pray today that everything I touch my hands to do shall prosper and succeed. Thank You Father, for giving me Jesus. Jesus, I love you. Jesus, thank You for giving me salvation. Thank you for healing my body. I love you, Jesus, with all my heart and I yield to you today. Jesus, I want to live and show others your salvation. Holy Spirit, I love you. You're my helper. You're my guide, you're my teacher, and I welcome you in my day today. Holy Spirit, have your way. Holy Spirit, I do not want to make you sad. Holy Spirit, I love you. Be real in my life today. Have all the liberty you want to teach me, to show me my Father's heart. If you need to correct me Holy Spirit, that's okay. I will listen to you today, in everything I do, and I thank you for helping me. Father God, you're wonderful. Thank you for giving me Jesus and thank you for giving me your Holy Spirit. Father God, it makes you happy when your children walk in truth and today I decide to walk in truth and I believe your truth in me produces Your will and produces your fruit. Today I walk in Your Word, I speak Your Word, and I will act upon it with all of my heart, with all of my mind, and with all of my strength. I love you, Father God. Have a happy day!
